ARUNA SHANBAUG

1ST JUNE 1948 - 18TH MAY 2015

Dear Aruna,

We always remember you for enduring those deplorable working conditions that led to the tragic event of exploitation and sexual harassment then you ended up living four decades on a hospital bed. Unfortunately, to date, nothing has changed much.

We are still unable to respect,

- The dignity of Nurses - Nurses are not adequately given private rooms to change the uniforms at workplaces, not adequate toilets.
- The Independence of the Nurses - Nurses do not have the platform to express their concerns related to workplace violence, bullying, and sexual abuse.
- The privacy and confidentiality of Nurses - Nurses' work being video graphed continuously without consent and ends up in miscreants' hands.
- Safety of Nurses - Nurses work in stressful conditions and prone to various occupational hazards.
